

Ancram Holds “Second Chance” Public Review of Vision and Goals

Ancram, June 10 – The Ancram Comprehensive Planning Committee has scheduled a “Second Chance” public meeting on Monday, June 16 at 7 PM at the Ancram town Hall to review progress on the Comprehensive Plan and solicit comments and questions about the draft 2030 Vision for Ancram document and the supporting statement of Goals. Post cards inviting the Community to the June 16 meeting were mailed out in late May.

Ancram held its first review of the Vision and Goals documents at a meeting on Saturday, April 26, attended by over 70 residents. “We wanted to make sure anyone who did not have an opportunity to participate in the April 26 meeting had another chance to express their thoughts about the Vision and Goals”, commented Art Bassin, Chair of the Ancram Comprehensive Planning Plan Committee.

The Ancram Comprehensive Planning Committee will be meeting every Monday evening in June at 7 PM to begin developing strategies to implement the Vision and Goals. All Ancram Comp Plan meeting are open to the public.
